FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AREA STUDENTS RECEIVE BUSINESS AWARDS

CHARLESTON -- Two area students have received business awards from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business and Applied Sciences.

Clarence Richey, son of Darrell and Sandy Richey of Everett, Wash., received the Master of Business Administration Association (MBAA)-Outstanding Officer Award.

The MBAA award is presented annually to a graduate student officer of the MBA Association based upon scholarship, leadership and research. Eastern's Graduate Business Studies Office nominates students for the award. Recipients are selected by the Graduate Committee.

Kimberly Tingley, daughter of Dale and Sandy Roberts of Marshall, received the Bert and Janet Holley Scholarship.

The Holley scholarship is awarded annually to an EIU student who is an incoming transfer student who is enrolled in a bachelor of science in business degree program and has completed requirements for an associate in arts or associate in science degree at an Illinois community college prior to entering EIU.
